

Baiona (Spain), September 18-22, 2017

“Annual School and Symposium on advances in NeuroRehabilitation” will provide a dynamic environment for discussion and in-depth education on advanced procedures for neurorehabilitation covering a wide range of topics -from basic to advance levels-, including advanced electrode and biosensor design, biomechanical modelling, mechatronics, biosignal processing and assistive rehabilitation technologies.

Plenary Speakers

Metin Akay

U. of Houston, USA

Christian Cipriani

The Biorobotics Institute, Italy

Andrea D'Avella

Universita' di Messina, Italy

Oscar Herreras

Cajal Institute, CSIC, Spain

Marco Molinari

IRCCS Fondazione S. Lucia, Italy

Katja Mombaur

University of Heidelberg, Germany

Natalie Mrachacz-Kersting

Aalborg University, Denmark

Klaus-Robert Muller

Technische Universität Berlin, Germany

David Reinkensmeyer

University of California, USA

Jonathan R. Wolpaw

Wadsworth Center, NY State Dept. of Health, USA

Ulf Ziemann

Hertie Institute for Clinical Brain Research, Germany

Chairs

José L. Pons, Cajal Institute, CSIC

Dario Farina, Imperial College London

Important dates

Early Application: April 1, 2017

Early Notification: April 15, 2017

Early Payment: May 15, 2017